A QUESTION of some interest to masters of the mercantile marine, has recently been raised at Singapore. The certificate of Captain Nicol, of the steamer Namyong, having been suspended by a Court of Inquiry held with reference to the stranding of that yessel, un application was made on his behalf to the Chief Justice to have the proceedings removed to the Supreme Court The ground of the application was that the fing .- The two depressions announced jesterday were sitting and quietly discussing local politics essential qualification for promotion. Court suspended the master's certificate although no charge had been made against him and he had not an opportunity of defending himself, and that in so acting. the Court exceeded its powers. The Chief Justice said, he was unable to hold, as contended for the applicant, that a Marine Court of Inquiry in the Straits Settlements had no power to suspend a certificate when worshippers, will celebrate their New Year the owner thereof had not been formally charged with some wrongful act or default, and his Lordship therefore refused the ap- the Tresty ports of China. plication.
